

NEW FRANCE WINE COMPANY

641 Fairview Avenue No., Suite 160, Saint Paul, MN 55104

New France Wine Company began as a small company founded by Robert Rudolph in 1990. Before moving to Minnesota, Rob previously owned a wine import/distributorship in San Francisco, CA. As the company grew, Eric Freeburg, a native Minnesotan, was hired as the first employee in 1997. Prior to New France Wine Company, he was working in the cellars of Bonny Doon Vineyard. Eric became a minority share partner in NFWC in 2000. Rob and Eric have continued to grow the company and in 2018, Rob transferred ownership to Eric.

New France Wine Company specializes in niche producers who are the best at their craft. We offer a large and eclectic portfolio; focusing on France, Italy and Spain; but with an eye toward value in all parts of the world, including domestic, Portugal, Australia and elsewhere.

We're wine people first and salespeople second. We hand-sell all our wines, working with retailers and restaurants to find what's right for them. Please peruse our portfolio at seventy.com/newfrancewine.
